TO : Chief, Intelligence School

FROM : OIR Orientation and Briefing Officer

SUBJECT: Weekly Activities Report #12
19 March to 25 March 1958

DATE: 26 March 1958

AIC BRIEFING

WAC

1. On 19 March a briefing on NSC-IAC-CIA was given at the Army Intelligence Center at Fort Holabird for some 60 members of the Associate Officer Advanced Course.

2. CIA participates in both the year-long Officer Advanced Course and two Associate Courses, given yearly: Every November three separate presentations are given by CIA to a combined Officer Advanced Course and Associate Officer Advanced Course. One presentation is on "National Security Organization," one is on "Functions and Organization of CIA," and the third is on "The Soviet Intelligence Service." Then in March one merged presentation on "National Security Organization and CIA" is given to the other Associate Officer Advanced Course. The Associate Courses are shorter than the year-long course because the officers have had more experience and are assigned to AIC on TDY.

3. CIC representation is 40 per cent of the student body, the rest being concerned with combat intelligence or clandestine collection. The exercise is always a stimulating one because of the maturity and the professionalism of the officers in the course.

4. Host to the O & B Officer on 19 March was an old home-town friend in the Boy Scouts.
